OUR CAMPUS
The new BSBI main campus is situated in the historical building of Alte Post. This building boasts a modern interior, with 17,000 square meters of space. The Neukölln district is a melting pot of cultures. With BSBI in the area, we will bring an even truer sense of diversity to this urban neighbourhood. Apart from accessibility, the new campus offers modern equipment and facilities including an audio and visual studio, IT laboratory, cafeteria, lounge areas, rooftop access and terraces. The space is highly conducive to innovation, academic and social activities, and meaningful networking opportunities.

Visa and Immigration

In order to study long-term in Germany (longer than 90 days), you must apply for a student visa which lasts between 3-6 months. If you're taking a course with a duration of less than 90 days, no visa is required. If you stay for longer than 3 months, you will also need a Residence Permit which you can get at the Alien Registration Office. Foreign students are also encouraged to open up a blocked bank account. This is just to reassure German authorities that you are able to afford your studies here. Find more information on the thank you page.
